Global Reach

Real People. Better Data. Smarter Decisions

When you work with Peeq, you know your data comes from real people you can trust.

Access vetted, trusted sourcing that undergoes rigorous quality checks, ensuring low scrub rates (<5% vs. the industry average of >20%). Prodege regularly scores 'best in class' on quality when tested by our clients.

No License or Hidden Fees

Peeq has no license fees, no minimums, and no hidden costs - it's free to use.

Choose between transparent, flexible real-time pricing, or name your own price to fit your budget. Pay as you go and enjoy unlimited seats, making it an ideal solution for teams of all sizes.

Global Reach

Unlike other providers, Peeq gives you the best of both worlds: access to the same suppliers as others plus our unique, industry-leading proprietary panel.

Peeq connects you to a massive global audience, offering access to unlimited global sample sources. Prodege's proprietary panel is the largest in the world and includes diverse, hard-to-reach audiences such as teens, millennials, and various ethnic groups that you will not find on other marketplaces.

Customizable Solutions

Designed by project managers for project managers, Peeq's intuitive platform puts you in control of your projects.

Easily create custom panels, set up recontact studies with high recall rates, and manage quotas across multiple traffic sources, all in minutes. With thousands of targeting variables, you have the flexibility to tailor your research to meet your specific needs.

Unparalleled Customer Support

With Prodege Peeq, you're never alone.

Our platform provides live 24/7 human support (we like to call it an assisted marketplace) to guide you every step of the way - no bots, no middlemen. You'll also have direct access to our proprietary panel, ensuring better quality control and faster results without relying on third-party marketplaces.

Transform how you manage sampling and research projects with Prodege Peeq - a smarter, easier, and more reliable solution.
